Carpenter Named Chief Lending Officer

Dennis Carpenter has been named Farm Credit of the Virginias' chief lending officer. Dennis began his career as a loan officer in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. He has since worked for Louisville Farm Credit and the Baltimore Farm Credit Bank. Carpenter worked for the Farm Credit Administration in McLean, Virginia before joining the staff at Farm Credit of the Virginias. There he was involved with regulation and policymaking and providing credit and supervisory expertise to other associations across the country.

Dennis and his wife, Fran, have relocated to Waynesboro, Va.

Farm Credit of the Virginias, a farmer-owned cooperative, provides over a billion dollars in financing to more than 9,000 farmers, agribusinesses and rural homeowners in 96 counties in Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland. It makes loans for home purchase and construction, land and farm purchases, equipment, farming expenses, horse and livestock purchases. Other financial services available through Farm Credit are credit life insurance, crop insurance and equipment leasing programs.

Farm Credit of the Virginias is part of the national Farm Credit System, established in 1916 by Federal legislation. For more information, visit www.farmcreditofvirginias.com.
